OFFICE ORDER 1/BISHOP/DOC/CNI/2019

Date: 11/02/2019

As per the earlier decision of the Diocesan Board of Education / Management all Stewart Schools are finally informed not to continue with any teacher without requisite qualifications ( i. e, D. El. Ed / B. Ed / M. Ed) from institutions recognized by the NCTE. The service of the staff be re-adjusted as per their qualifications from the next academic session. No untrained teacher will be allowed to serve in any Stewart School after 31st March 2019 as per the notification of the Government and the ICSE. Teachers possessing NTT be allowed to serve in Pre-School subjected they have passed +2 with NTT.

It is further ordered that all appointments shall be done in accordance with Stewart School Service Rules, through the Selection Committee. Any interim appointment shall be made after obtaining approval of the Chairman through Office note following due procedure. Any teacher does not possess required qualification as prescribed by the Government / ICSE, it shall be void. In that event the teacher so appointed shall have no right to claim his/ her continuance in service. The appointment letter shall be issued subject to approval by the Selection Committee / Chairman.

The Principals will be held responsible, if the appointment proposal is not approved by the Chairman of the School.

This order will come with immediate effect.
